KHARI KAMAI -A SCOUT & GUIDE EVENT

Bhavan's Bhagwandas Purohit Vidya Mandir, Trimurti Nagar successfully organized the Khari Kamai activity on 31st January 2026 with great enthusiasm and zeal. The event aimed to instil the values of self-dependence, coordination, and teamwork among students. A total of 301 students actively participated in the activity. Through hands-on involvement, the students learned the importance of earning through honest effort while working collaboratively with their peers. The event was graced by Smt. Savitri Subramaniam, Assistant Commissioner and Leader Trainer, Guide Wing, as the Chief Guest. She was formally welcomed by Guide Miss Avni Raut. The esteemed guest was escorted to all the stalls, where she witnessed the creativity, confidence, and enthusiasm displayed by the students. Altogether, 20 stalls were set up for the event, comprising 15 game stalls and 5 food stalls. The Scout and Guide students took the initiative to decorate their stalls attractively and adopted innovative methods for publicity, which added vibrancy and excitement to the entire programme. The event was efficiently coordinated under the leadership of Shri Dushyant Vyas and Smt. Yamini Martha as the In-charges, with valuable support from Shri. Ramesh Chauhan and Smt. Poonam Wankar as Assistant In-charges. The Khari Kamai activity was meticulously planned and executed under the able and inspiring guidance of the Principal, Smt. Parwati G. Iyer. The event concluded successfully, leaving a lasting impression on the students and reinforcing practical life skills through experiential learning.
